Prime Cattle Report (Red Market)

Auctioneer: Mark Burgoyne 07831 192603

241 Prime Cattle

A very firm trade once again with similar numbers forward. An overall average of 153p/kg resulted with a fresh face around the ring for best quality steers and heifers. The 'meat men' are still experiencing lack lustre sales but a tightening of available numbers (especially the best end) will definitely help vendors' returns

Some better supermarket steers available but once again averages depleted by our fair share of Holsteins. Steers sold to 179p/kg and to £1289.60. Butchers heifers a very sharp trade selling to 200p/kg and in the 190 pence's on several occasion to £1067.84. There were plenty of ordinary types which met similar returns to last week's sale.

Bull trade took half a step forward especially on best heavies which sold to £1218.44. Holstein bulls still on the ordinary side but selling above 130p/kg unless with belly.

27 Cows sold to average 90p/kg

A very mixed sample saw good Continentals to 130p/kg for 614kg Blondes. 830kg Blues sold to 126p/kg (£1045.80) and 610kg Limousins to 125p/kg. 728kg Holsteins sold to 108p/kg with steaking Holsteins generally 90-100p/kg, all with belly.

172 Clean Cattle

60 steers sold to average 151p/kg. 602kg Limousins to 179p/kg for Max Preece (£1077.58). 520kg Limousins to 174p/kg from Mike Davies, with 582kg Limousins to 174p/kg from Alice Redgrave. 526kg Limousin/Blues to 172p/kg from David Froggatt. 544kg Blondes to 170p/kg from Millichamp Bros. 542kg Limousins to 170p/kg from Pete Raybould. 806kg Charolais to £1289.60 from John Bright, with 932kg Charolais (OTM) to £1239.56. Blues from Richard & Sue Burgoyne to £1112.90 for 718kg. Plenty of steers above £1000. A large entry of Holstein steers sold to 123p/kg and were particularly shapeless.

112 heifers sold to average 157p/kg. 486kg Limousins topped at 200p/kg for Roger Jordin. 482kg to 197p/kg from Ray Bason. 468kg to 193p/kg for Steve Perkins. 450-480kg Limousins from Mike Williams to 193p/kg x 2 & 192p/kg x 2. Plenty of others sold above 180p/kg. 568kg Limousins to £1067.84 from the Jordin stable and 628kg Charolais to £1029.92 from John Bright. Plenty of females above £900 today. Hereford x Friesian heifers to 131p/kg from John Dudlestone.

69 Young Bulls ov. av. 151p/kg

8 Holsteins included in today's average. 452kg Blue bulls to 180p/kg from Rob Morris. Other Blues to 175p/kg for 662kg from Goulburn Farms (£1158.50) and 692kg Limousins to £1148.72 from the same home. 734kg Limousins from Dave Preece sold to £1218.44.

Mark Pinches, Ian Bebb and Andrew Preece all sold heavy Continentals in the 170 pence's.
Holsteins to 134p/kg from David Preece.

1370 Lambs

A few more lambs forward this week and trade following the general trend nationally, with a sale average of 150p/kg. Best lambs sold to 169p/kg twice, both from Andrew Meredith, with very few top quality sheep on offer. Heavy lambs sold to just over £70 to £72.

Lighter weights 30kg to 34kg to 150p/kg to 160p/kg, with only hill bred lambs under 150p/kg.

306 Ewes

One of the dearest ewe trades seen for some time, with ewes dearer than lambs per pound.

Texels sold to £80 from Mark Steele and not over big Suffolks to £71. Stronger Suffolks at £80. North Country Mules to £74 and leaner large ewes well over £3/kg dead.

Horned ewes sold to £50 and small Hill ewes to £34. A single ram realised £52.50

236 Store Cattle – Auctioneer Mark Burgovne

A flying trade once again with Bridgnorth somehow managing to avoid the slip in values reported in other local centres. All shapes and sizes averaged 166p/kg, with a super show of cows and calves selling to average £997.83, with plenty of older cows forward. Charolais stock bulls exceeded expectations selling to £2300 for a 2006 bull.
